

Presented by the NTID Performing Arts Department

WINDOWS OF THE SOUL

Magical Life Stories from the Deaf community

photograph © Patricia Wilder

Starring Simon Carmel

conceived, developed and directed by

Luane Davis Haggerty

with stories shared by friends

January 26, 27, 28 at 7:30 pm

January 29 at 2:00 pm

1510 Lab Theatre (free admission*)

Through "windows of the soul," we catch glimpses of today's young Deaf people and compare their hopes, dreams, and struggles with the magical themes of Deaf literature, history and lore across generations. The show is performed in American Sign Language, spoken English, with dance, mime, magic, poetry and multi-media - - accessible to all audiences Deaf and hearing.

*seating is limited: first-come, first served basis